READING A2

Applying for a summer job

Last month, Anna saw an advertisement for a summer job at a hotel. The hotel was looking for a receptionist assistant.

Anna had some experience because she had worked in a small shop during the previous summer. She also spoke English and German.

She sent her CV and a short application email. A few days later, the hotel invited her to an interview.

During the interview, the recruiter asked about her experience, language skills and availability. Anna explained that she was friendly, organised and willing to learn.

She got the job and started work in July.

Questions

1. Where did Anna want to work?
2. What position was available?

3. What previous experience did she have?
 4. What languages did she speak?
 5. What did she send to the hotel?
 6. What did the recruiter ask about?
 7. Did Anna get the job?
