READING A2

The right decision

Anna wants to buy a new laptop. Her old laptop is slow, but it still works.

She has enough money to buy a new one, but she is also saving for a holiday.

She considers three options. She can buy an expensive laptop, buy a cheaper model or wait and save more money.

After thinking about the advantages and disadvantages, she decides to buy a cheaper model. She needs a laptop for school, but she does not need the most expensive one.

Anna is happy with her decision because she can use the laptop and still save some money.

Questions

1. What does Anna want to buy?
 2. Why does she want a new laptop?
 3. What is she saving money for?
 4. What are her three options?
 5. What does she finally choose?
 6. Why doesn't she buy the most expensive model?
 7. What is the result of her decision?

LISTENING A2

Posłuchaj nagrania.

My friend asked me for advice because he wanted to change his part-time job. His current job was well paid, but he didn't like the working hours. The new job offered better hours but a lower salary. I told him to think about what was more important to him. In the end, he chose the new job because he wanted more free time.

Questions

1. Why did the friend ask for advice?
 2. What was good about his old job?
 3. What was the problem?
 4. What was better about the new job?
 5. What was worse?
 6. Why did he choose the new job?
