

A2

FAMILY LIFE AND FRIENDSHIPS

Na poziomie A2 potrafimy:

- dokładnie opisywać rodzinę,
 - mówić o relacjach,
 - opisywać wspólne aktywności,
 - mówić o problemach w relacjach,
 - porównywać ludzi,
 - wyrażać uczucia i opinie.
-

Family relationships

close — bliski

distant — odległy

supportive — wspierający

strict — surowy

understanding — wyrozumiały

protective — opiekuńczy

independent — niezależny

responsible — odpowiedzialny

Useful expressions

We get on well.

We don't always agree.

We sometimes argue.

We spend a lot of time together.

I can talk to my parents about my problems.

My family supports me.

Friendship

trust — ufać

help — pomagać

support — wspierać

share — dzielić się

agree — zgadzać się

disagree — nie zgadzać się

argue — kłócić się

apologise — przeproszać

Good friends

A good friend is someone who:

- listens to you,
 - helps you,
 - respects you,
 - tells you the truth,
 - supports you when you have problems.
-

KARTA PRACY A2

Ćwiczenie 1 — Match

1. supportive
2. strict
3. understanding
4. independent
5. protective

- a. wanting to keep someone safe
 - b. able to do things without help
 - c. helping and encouraging someone
 - d. having strong rules
 - e. understanding someone's feelings
-

Ćwiczenie 2 — Complete

1. We get _____ well.
 2. I can _____ my parents.
 3. We sometimes _____ about small things.
 4. My family _____ me when I have problems.
 5. I can always _____ on my best friend.
-

Ćwiczenie 3 — Good friendship

Wybierz pięć najważniejszych cech dobrego przyjaciela:

kind / honest / rich / supportive / funny / reliable / famous / patient / popular

Uzasadnij dwa wybory.

Ćwiczenie 4 — Problems

Dokończ:

Sometimes I argue with _____.

We disagree about _____.

When we have a problem, we _____.

READING A2

A difficult friendship

Lucy and Megan have been best friends for two years. They usually get on very well, but recently they have had a problem.

Megan has started spending more time with a new group of friends. Lucy feels that Megan doesn't have enough time for her anymore. At first, Lucy was angry and stopped talking to Megan.

After a few days, they decided to talk about the problem. Megan explained that she didn't want to end their friendship. She simply wanted to meet more people.

Lucy understood her point of view. They agreed to spend time together at weekends but also give each other more freedom.

Questions

1. How long have Lucy and Megan been friends?
 2. What problem did they have?
 3. How did Lucy feel?
 4. Why did Megan want to meet new people?
 5. What did they decide?
 6. Did they end their friendship?
-

LISTENING A2

Posłuchaj nagrania.

My relationship with my parents is quite good. They are supportive, but sometimes they are too strict. We often disagree about how much time I should spend online. I understand that they are worried about me, but I also want to be more independent. Usually, we talk about the problem and try to find a solution.

Questions

1. What is the relationship like?
 2. How are the parents supportive?
 3. What do they disagree about?
 4. Why does the speaker want more independence?
 5. How do they solve problems?
-

SPEAKING A2

Describe a good friend.

Powiedz:

- jaki/jaka jest,
 - jak się poznaliście,
 - co robicie razem,
 - dlaczego mu/jej ufasz,
 - co sprawia, że jesteście dobrymi przyjaciółmi.
-

WRITING A2

Napisz 80–100 słów:

WHAT MAKES A GOOD FRIEND?

Opisz cechy dobrego przyjaciela i uzasadnij swoje zdanie.

TEST A2

1. Someone who helps and encourages you is:

- A. supportive
- B. strict
- C. distant

2. Someone who understands your feelings is:

- A. protective
- B. understanding
- C. independent

3. We get _____ well.

- A. on
- B. at
- C. in

4. I can _____ on my best friend.

- A. depend
- B. argue
- C. disagree

5. We sometimes _____ about small things.

- A. support
- B. argue
- C. trust

6. Napisz trzy cechy dobrego przyjaciela.

7. Opisz problem, który może pojawić się w przyjaźni.

8. Napisz 5–6 zdań o swojej relacji z rodziną.
