Making suggestions

Let's go to the cinema.

Why don't we go swimming?

How about playing football?

Would you like to go with us?

We could meet at six.

That sounds great.

I'm afraid I can't.

I'd love to, but I'm busy.

READING A2

A new hobby

Last year, Kate decided to find a new hobby. She wanted to spend less time online and do something more active. Her friend suggested joining a local cycling club.

At first, Kate wasn't sure. She hadn't ridden a bike for several years and was worried that the other members would be much better than her. However, everyone was friendly and helped her.

Now Kate goes cycling twice a week. At weekends, the group often goes on longer trips outside the town. Kate says that cycling has helped her become fitter and meet new people.

Questions

1. Why did Kate want a new hobby?
 2. What did her friend suggest?
 3. Why was Kate worried?
 4. How often does she cycle?
 5. What does the group do at weekends?
 6. What benefits has Kate experienced?

LISTENING A2

Posłuchaj nagrania.

This Saturday I'm going to meet some friends in the town centre. We are going to have lunch and then go bowling. In the evening, we're going to watch a film at my friend's house. On Sunday, I want to stay at home and relax because I have a lot of work to do next week.

Questions

1. When is the speaker meeting friends?
 2. Where will they meet?
 3. What will they do after lunch?
 4. Where will they watch a film?
 5. What does the speaker want to do on Sunday?
 6. Why?
