READING A2

Eating at school

Many students eat lunch at school. Some bring sandwiches from home, while others buy food from the school shop or canteen.

A healthy school lunch should contain vegetables or fruit, a source of protein and some carbohydrates. Water is usually a better choice than a sugary drink.

However, eating healthily does not mean that students can never eat sweets or fast food. The most important thing is to have a balanced diet and not eat unhealthy food too often.

Questions

1. Where do students get their lunch?
 2. What should a healthy lunch contain?
 3. What is usually a better choice than a sugary drink?
 4. Can students eat sweets?
 5. What is the most important thing?
